

The Fine Arts Association seeks a Technical Director for the upcoming productions of Steel Magnolias and/or Miracle on 34th Street The Musical.

Responsibilities for Technical Direction of Steel Magnolias and/or Miracle on 34th Street The Musical:

- Set construction and implementation, and oversight of all technical aspects of each production
- Coordinate and assist outside designers on each production (sound/lighting/set)
- Train, and organize volunteers and assist with their recruitment
- Work with the stage manager to select and train stage crews.
- Responsible for oversight of sets, lighting, sound, and props
- Attend all production meetings
- Attend rehearsals as needed under the discretion of supervisor, including the entirety of tech week from the Saturday before opening through opening night
- Understand and be able to operate any utilized lighting/sound/monitor systems.

Important Dates:

- Tech week of Steel Magnolias September 12-17, 2021
- Tech week of Miracle on 34th Street The Musical November 21-26, 2021

Lines of Communication:

Reports directly to The Roger and Anne Clapp Chair of Performing Arts

Application Instructions:

Submit the following to The Roger and Anne Clapp Chair of Performing Arts, David Malinowski at dmalinowski@fineartsassociation.org

- Cover letter
- Résumé
- At least [2] professional references

